AUDITOR. How is This?-We find the following very important item in the Baltimore Republican of Monday: Rosetta Armstead, a negro girl, who was claimed as a fugitive slave in Columbus, O., about nine months ago, but was protected and shielded by the Black Republicans of that city, has rewarded their care and attention by presenting to them a molasses colored infant freedom-shrieker."

We think Rosetta is now entitled to some of the "Kansas fund." Will her Black Republican lovers see to it?

To do the best, can seldom be the lot of man; it is sufficient if, when opportunities are presented, he is ready to do good. How little virtue could be practiced, if benificence were to wait always for the most proper objects, and not act wisely. The power to see what is right is very different from the power may never happen, and objects that may never be found.
